bogether, there was no majority report, but the one signed by Walsh is looked upon as the main report. It finds that the chief ill in American social life is the unjust distribution of wealth. It proposes as a major remedy a drastic inheritance tax, which would prevent the keeping of vast fortunes in what are described as the great feudal families of industry.

This tax would bring about somethal it would prohibit more than $1,000,000 passing to the heirs by demise, while the portions of the estates confiscated by the tax are to be applied to education and other forms of public welfare. The Tribune correspondent at Milan reports that the government press in Germany is violently attacking Rumania for her stand, and that the fact that both the King of Rumania and the Car of Bulgaris have interrupted their vacations and returned to their respective capitals is regarded as forecasting momentous decisions in the war. The King of Rumania held a conference with representatives of all the Balkan States in Bucharest to-day, the outcome of which is eagerly awaited.

The following Reuter dispatch has been received from Sofia, Bulgaria:

"Private advices from Bucharest state it is feared there that Germany has sent an ultimatum to Rumania regarding the right to transport munitions of war for Turkey through Rumanian territory. The Rumanian Cabinet is firmly resolved not to grant this permission.
